First Reading: Acts 8:26-40

An angel of the Lord said to Philip, “Rise and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza.” This is a desert place. And he rose and went. And there was an Ethiopian, a eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure. He had come to Jerusalem to worship and was returning, seated in his chariot, and he was reading the prophet Isaiah. And the Spirit said to Philip, “Go over and join this chariot.” So Philip ran to him and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet and asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?” And he said, “How can I, unless someone guides me?” And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him. Now the passage of the Scripture that he was reading was this:

“Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter
and like a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so he opens not his mouth.

In his humiliation justice was denied him.

Who can describe his generation?

For his life is taken away from the earth.”

And the eunuch said to Philip, “About whom, I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?” Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he told him the good news about Jesus. And as they were going along the road they came to some water, and the eunuch said, “See, here is water! What prevents me from being baptized?” And he commanded the chariot to stop, and they both went down into the water, Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him. And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord carried Philip away, and the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he passed through he preached the gospel to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle: 1 John 4:1-21

Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God, for many false prophets have gone out into the world. By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, and every spirit that does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist, which you heard was coming and now is in the world already. Little children, you are from God and have overcome them, for he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world. They are from the world; therefore they speak from the world, and the world listens to them. We are from God. Whoever knows God listens to us; whoever is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know the Spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. In this the love of God was made manifest among us, that God sent his only Son into the world, so that we might live through him. In this is love, not that we have loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we also ought to love one another. No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God abides in us and his love is perfected in us.

By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. And we have seen and testify that the Father has sent his Son to be the Savior of the world. Whoever confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God abides in him, and he in God. So we have come to know and to believe the love that God has for us. God is love, and whoever abides in love abides in God, and God abides in him. By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world. There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. For fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not been perfected in love. We love because he first loved us. If anyone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen cannot love God whom he has not seen. And this commandment we have from him: whoever loves God must also love his brother.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Holy Gospel: John 15:1-8

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the 15th chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord. (sung)

[Jesus said:] “I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinedresser. Every branch of mine that does not bear fruit he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. Already you are clean because of the word that I have spoken to you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. If anyone does not abide in me he is thrown away like a branch and withers; and the branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. By this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and so prove to be my disciples.”

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ. (sung)

NEXT SUNDAY, the LWML Mite Box will be in the Welcome Center. Please empty your mite box into the large mite box and continue saving your coins for the mission of our district and international projects.

MINUTES FROM THE quarterly Congregational Assembly meeting are available today at the Welcome Center.

I WANT TO THANK the teacher and students for the wonderful birthday cards. They were fun! Ruth Engelby

HOSPITALIZED? Please note that if the hospital has no record of church affiliation for a patient, that patient will not be listed on the daily census for pastors. To ensure that members' names are listed on the census, members need to ask the registration clerk to list their religion ("Lutheran") and religious affiliation ("St. Paul Lutheran, Fairmont"). Our pastors can then ask at the desk for the patient's room number, unless you have called the church to notify us directly of a hospitalized member and have provided that information. Also, if you have had a death in the family, or you or a family member are ill, please contact a pastor or the church office.

THE FIRST SATURDAY of the month, the LLL meets at The Ranch Restaurant at 9:00 a.m. Our next meeting is May 4th.

REMINDER: WHEN WRITING CHECKS for any of the offering envelopes, please make your check payable to our church, St. Paul Lutheran Church and list the designation/memorial in the memo line. We will then pass designated donations/memorials to the appropriate organizations (Church or School Endowment Funds, Anna Keck, MLHS, etc.). Thank you!

INDIVIDUALLY-WRAPPED CAVANAGH GLUTEN-FREE communion wafers are available (ingredients: garbanzo bean, flour, potato starch, tapioca flour, whole grain sweet white sorghum flour, fava bean flour). Please speak with a pastor if you have food allergies to gluten and need to receive Christ's body in the Sacrament using gluten-free wafers. The wafers will remain wrapped until unwrapped by the person receiving it at the Communion rail to be consumed.

"EVERY BRANCH OF MINE THAT DOES NOT BEAR FRUIT he takes away, and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes, that it may bear more fruit." (John 15:2) God is interested in the fruit that we bear in good works, and He even prunes us so that we may bring forth more fruit. Trusting in our Lord's work for us, being grafted by grace into His vine, we desire to be more like Him, to grow into His image. That's growth in fruit bearing — and it always comes with some pruning.

THRIVENT FINANCIAL is having a shredding event on Monday & Tuesday, April 29th & 30th, at 301 Downtown Plaza from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. both days. Thrivent is happy to provide this service for our community, and ask that you limit your shredding to two paper grocery bags or one "banker's box" per person. You can bring your shredding into their office and empty into the containers provided. If you need help, please call the office at 235-9877 and they will be happy to help or answer any questions.

CALENDARS/NEWSLETTERS are available at the Welcome Center. Volunteers—please check to see if you are scheduled during the month. The newsletter is also available online at www.splfairmont.org.

CREST WILL BE HOSTING the Carlson Pillow Cleaning Service on Thursday, May 2nd from 7:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the upper level of the Evangelical Covenant Church, 901 Woodland Ave., Fairmont. Pillows will be fluffed, cleaned, deodorized and sanitized while you wait, or you may come back to pick them up later in the day. All proceeds from this event will go to benefit CREST as they strive to enhance the quality of life for those they serve in Martin County. If you would like more information about CREST or this fundraiser, please call 235-3833.

The Congregation at Prayer

A Guide for Daily Meditation and Prayer for This Week

Pray and confess out loud as much from the order of meditation and prayer as you are able, or as your family size and ages dictate. Learn by heart the catechism and Hymn of the Week.

INVOCATION: “In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.” Let all say, “AMEN!”

CONFESS the Apostles’ Creed

RECITE the Verse of the Week: 2 Corinthians 5:21—For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

PRAY the Psalm of the Month: Psalm 23

READ from Small Catechism: The Lord’s Prayer:

The Third Petition and its meaning—(Pre+) Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. (1st+) What does this mean? The good and gracious will of God is done even without our prayer, but we pray in this petition that it may be done among us also. (3rd+) How is God’s will done? God’s will is done when He breaks and hinders every evil plan and purpose of the devil, the world, and our sinful nature, which do not want us to hallow God’s name or let His kingdom come; and when He strengthens and keeps us firm in His Word and faith until we die. This is His good and gracious will.

THE COLLECT OF THE WEEK

O God, You make the minds of Your faithful to be of one will. Grant that we may love what You have commanded and desire what You promise, that among the many changes of this world our hearts may be fixed where true joys are found; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

DAILY THEMES FOR PRAYER

Pray for...

S: the joy of the resurrection among us; true and godly worship throughout the world; and the faithful preaching and hearing of God’s Word.

M: faith to live in the promises of Holy Baptism; your calling and daily work; the unemployed; the salvation and well-being of our neighbors; for government; and for peace.

T: deliverance against temptation; the addicted and despairing; the tortured and oppressed; and those struggling with besetting sins.

W: marriage and family, living together under the grace of Christ according to the Word of God; those adults who must rear their children alone; and godly schools, especially St. Paul Lutheran and Martin Luther.

Th: the church and her pastors; for missionaries; fruitful and salutary use of the blessed sacrament of the Lord’s body and blood.

F: the preaching of the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ; its spread throughout the whole world and our community; the persecuted.

S: faithfulness to the end; the dying; the revival of those who are withering in the faith or have fallen away; receptive hearts for worship and study on the Lord’s Day.

OUR PRAYERS at St. Paul’s (see bulletin).

PRAY the Lord’s Prayer.

PRAY Luther’s Morning or Evening Prayer from the Small Catechism.

SPEAK OR SING the Hymn of the Week:

LSB 571

God loved the world so that He gave
His only Son the lost to save,
That all who would in Him believe
Should everlasting life receive.
